

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C.

Sept. 29, 1881.

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.

Supt. U. S. Mint

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 20th instant in regard to the coinage of quarter eagles I have to state that it is not deemed advisable to coin any gold for less denomination than the half eagle.

I regret that by an oversight you were not advised upon this subject immediately on the receipt of your letter.

Very respectfully,
R. E. Persson
Acting Director.
